

Can you solve The Silver Key CD Mystery?

Austin, TX (PRWEB) March 7, 2010 --

The Silver Key, the latest release from acclaimed Austin band "The Weirdo Deluxe" doubles as an armchair treasure hunt wherein the new tunes and CD package provide clues to a jackpot. In a unique twist, the jackpot grows for every CD sold.

Inspired by Kit Williams' "Masquerade," The Silver Key CD from the Austin-based band The Weirdo Deluxe launches a national treasure hunt. Gamers, geocachers, teachers, musicians, and geography classes alike will be able to hunt for the treasure through listening to the CD and using the CD packaging.

In the grand tradition of Nick Bantock's cleverly packaged books, Steve McAllister - head "Weirdo" took the CD packaging a step further and enlisted a bevy of accomplished musicians to play on The Silver Key CD.

Listeners and puzzle solvers alike can find more information to solve the hunt and get to a jackpot at <http://www.findthesilverkey.com> .

"It's a game, but the console is your CD player," says the CD's producer/creator Steve McAllister (Varitone Records). "But make no mistake, it's a difficult challenge." Performers on the CD include Ian Moore, Ian McLagan (Small Faces), Dave Gregory (XTC), and a host of Austin's finest.

Weirdo Deluxe was most recently featured on Fox's Good Day Live in Austin - http://www.myfoxaustin.com/dpp/good_day/live_music/111609-Live-Music-The-Weirdo-Deluxe .

"The Silver Key" is the band's 5th release.

Track Listing: The Beginning, HIKJ, I'm Gonna Write Show Tunes, Where The Blue Meets The Blue, Got To Find A Way, You Can Tell, Ever Upward, Star Light, Star Bright, My Silver Key, Peace & Love, The Story So Far, In One.

Mastered by Bob Olhsson: Key: Danielle Becker; Layout & design: Ashley Savage Williams. Available on Varitone Records.

nettie AT nettiehartsock.com - The Hartsock Agency

Check the www.findthesilverkey.com website for more information.